Players Code of Conduct

I will:

- Always remember that it is a privilege to play the game.
- Respect officials and accept their decisions without dissent or anger.
- Exercise self-control at all times, setting the example for others to follow, and never use bad language.
- Learn and obey the Rules of Water Polo and those set by the competition committee.
- Only give encouragement to my fellow team mates.
- Treat my coach and opponents with respect.
- Win without boasting, lose without excuses and never quit.
- Immediately report any injury/illness to my coach.
- Assist as required in the setting up of the pool and running of games.
- Be prompt by being ready for games 10 minutes before the scheduled start of my team's game.
- Take proper care of competition equipment

I understand that a violation of this code of behaviour or any action which is detrimental to the sport of Water Polo could lead to my suspension from any or all activities. Furthermore I recognise and confirm that the competition is open age and mixed gender. I acknowledge Water Polo is a contact sport and there could be some incidental contact between players of the same gender or the opposite gender during games.
